

Dr. Julie A. Jones
Curriculum Vitae
St. Ambrose University
Occupational Therapy Department
1320 W. Lombard Street
Davenport, Iowa 52804
JonesJulieA@sau.edu

EDUCATION

St. Catherine University, St. Paul, MN

Doctor of Occupational Therapy

May 2017

Doctoral Research Project: Addressing Caregiver Outcomes through Family Guided Routines Based Intervention

St. Ambrose University, Davenport, IA

Master of Occupational Therapy

May 2003

Research Project: Impact of Motion Picture Industry on Physical Therapy Students' Perceptions of Mental Illness

St. Ambrose University, Davenport, IA

Bachelor of Arts: Psychology

May 2002

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

St. Ambrose University

Assistant Professor

July 1, 2017-present

Courses Taught

- Scholarship I & II
- OT Interventions I, II and III – pediatric and women's health content
- OT Process – co-taught: 2018

St. Ambrose University

Adjunct Instructor

August 2013 – June 2017

Courses Taught

- Conditions Impacting Occupational Engagement: 2013, 2014, 2015
- Occupational Studies in Pediatrics: 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017
- Feeding Special Topics: 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018

Courses Developed

- Feeding Special Topics

PRACTICE EXPERIENCE

HCR ManorCare – Skilled Nursing

March 2009 – present

As Needed (PRN) Occupational Therapist

- Evaluate and treat a wide range of conditions, including chronic and acute pain, orthopedic conditions, deconditioning, and neurological diseases.
- Plan individually designed treatment programs to restore, maintain and improve physical functioning, alleviate pain, and prevent disability.

- Record detailed treatment and progress notes in patient chart.
- Educate patients and family members regarding diagnoses, injury prevention, and adaptive equipment.

Mississippi Bend Area Education Agency

July 1, 2003 -July 1, 2017

Pediatric Occupational Therapist

- Evaluated children ages birth-3 in the home environment and ages 3-21 in the school environment.
- Planned child-specific and family-guided outcomes and treatment plans in the areas of fine motor skills, visual motor skills, sensory processing, adaptive skills, oral motor, and feeding.
- Monitored and recorded progress in response to therapy.
- Provided caregiver education and caregiver coaching strategies to build capacity in families.
- Managed a high-volume caseload.
- Mentored new therapists.
- Collaborated with team and administration in various leadership roles.
- Developed and implemented student specific Response to Intervention (RTI) strategies.

Rosewood Care Center

July 2003-June 2012

PRN Occupational Therapist

- Evaluated and treat a wide range of conditions.
- Planned individually designed treatment programs to restore, maintain, and improve physical functioning, alleviate pain, and prevent disability.
- Recorded detailed prognosis, treatment, responses and progress notes in patient chart.
- Educated patients and family members regarding diagnoses, injury prevention, and adaptive equipment.

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

- March 2020. Conference Speaker Panel: Women's Health in Occupational Therapy Practice. AOTA Annual Conference. Boston, MA. Note: Conference canceled due to COVID.
- October 2019. Conference Speaker: Routines and Children with Autism. Autism Society of the Quad Cities Annual Conference. Davenport, Iowa.
- September 2019. Conference Speaker: Providers' Perspectives of Routines Based Intervention. Iowa Occupational Therapy Association Annual Conference. Waterloo, Iowa.
- April 2019. AOTA Poster Presentation: Addressing Caregiver Outcomes through Family Guided Routines Based Intervention. AOTA Annual Conference. New Orleans, Louisiana.
- May 2018. Conference speaker: Addressing Caregiver Outcomes through Family Guided Routines Based Intervention. St. Ambrose Person Center Care Conference, St. Ambrose University. Davenport, Iowa.
- May 2017. Doctoral Project Presentation. Addressing Caregiver Outcomes through Family Guided Routines Based Intervention. St. Catherine University OTD Symposium.
- April 2004. Current Research to Support Feeding Interventions in Early Intervention and School Based Settings. Iowa Department of Education Spring Occupational Therapy Symposium

PUBLICATIONS

- Children with Complex Medical Needs. Book Chapter Author. Best Practice in Early Childhood. In Press. Scheduled publication winter 2021. AOTA Press.
- OT's Role in Women's Health. OT Practice Magazine. August 2020. Co-author
- Building Community Partnerships: Practical Applications through Pediatric Examples. OT Practice Magazine. July 2020. Co-author.
- Family Guided Routines. Glass Half Full Podcast. Audio Publication. December 2018.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

- Member of AOTA Early Intervention Community of Practice (CoP)
- Member of AOTA Women’s Health Community of Practice (CoP)
- AOTA Conference Proposal Reviewer: 2018, 2019
- Member of AOTA New Educator Membership Program – Academic year 2017-2018
- Mentored New Practitioner on Best Practices in Pediatric Feeding – Academic year 2017-2018

DEPARTMENT AND UNIVERSITY SERVICE

- Search Committee member for Physical Therapy Department Director: Fall 2020
- Graduate Council Member: Academic year 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021
- Graduate Council Executive Committee Member: Academic year 2020-2021
- Retention Committee: Academic year 2017-2018, 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021
- Curriculum Committee: Academic year 2017-2018, 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021
- Student Occupational Therapy Association Advisor (SOTA): 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021
- Fall Prevention Presentation. Dr. Anne Lansing’s Aging Innovatively Program, February 2018, April 2019, March 2020 (virtual presentation)
- Search Committee member for Occupational Therapy Department Director: Fall 2019
- Search Committee for Graduate Writing Coordinator: Fall 2019
- Lead Instructor for Interventions IIIA: Academic year 2017-2018, 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2-21
- Lead Instructor for Interventions IIB: Academic year 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021
- Life Balance Committee: 2018-2019, 2019-2020
- Search Committee member for part time faculty position in Occupational Therapy Department. Spring 2019.

RECENT RESEARCH AND DOCTOR PROJECT MENTORSHIP

Date	Topic	Degree/Institution
August 2020-current	Family-Centered Care from NICU through Early Intervention	Occupational Therapy Doctorate/St. Ambrose University
August 2020 - current	OTs Role in Support School Occupations and Routines	Occupational Therapy Doctorate/St. Ambrose University
August 2019 - 2020	Teen Mothers: Supports and Barriers	Occupational Therapy Doctorate/St. Ambrose University

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA)
- Iowa Occupational Therapy Association (IOTA)
- NBCOT Certified
- Iowa Association for Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health
- Board Certified Pediatric Occupational Therapist (AOTA)

PROFESSIONAL INTERESTS

- Early Intervention
- Routines-Based Intervention
- Women's Health: Maternal Wellness and Mental Health (post-partum depression, post-partum PTSD, caregiver stress)
- Infant Emotional Health and Children's Mental Health
- Health Literacy
- Teen Moms

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Iowa Council for Early ACCESS: Personnel Preparation Position: Appointed by Governor Kim Reynolds for 3-year term beginning fall 2020
- Child Abuse Council of Quad Cities – Court Appointed Child Advocate: September 2018-September 2020
- Philanthropic Educational Organization (PEO) – Chapter OM President- present
- Big Brothers – Big Sisters - Big Sister 2013-2014
- Research participant: Allen College, Margo Kreger, BA, OTR/L, Transition from Clinic to Academia, March 2018
- Research participant: St. Ambrose University; Dr. Mike Puthoff, PhD, PT, Moving Target Screen, June 2018