

STUDENT CONSUMER COMPLAINT PROCESS

The U.S. Department of Education established requirements to improve the integrity of programs authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act (HEA), as amended (the “Program Integrity Rule”). The Program Integrity Rule requires, among other things, that each college or university authorized to offer postsecondary education in one or more states ensure access to a complaint process that will permit student consumers to address the following:

- Alleged violations of State consumer protection laws that include but are not limited to fraud and false advertising;
- Alleged violations of State laws or rules relating to the licensure of postsecondary institutions; and
- Complaints relating to the quality of education or other State or accreditation requirements.

St. Ambrose University participates in Federal student aid programs that are authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965. Participating institutions must be legally authorized to operate within the state in which they are located. 34 CFR, Section 600.9(a)(1) requires states to have a process to review and appropriately act on complaints concerning the institution including enforcing applicable State laws. 34 CFR, Section 668.43(b) requires that institutions “make available for review to any enrolled or prospective student upon request, a copy of the documents describing the institution’s accreditation and its State, Federal, or tribal approval or licensing. The institution must also provide its students or prospective students with contact information for filing complaints with its accreditor and with its State approval or licensing entity and any other relevant State official or agency that would appropriately handle a student’s complaint.”

St. Ambrose University seeks to resolve all student concerns in a timely and effective manner. It is expected that students will fully utilize any or all the University’s administrative procedures to address concerns or complaints in a timely manner.

The Compliant Registration Process can be found in the Student Handbook, available on our website: <https://sau.edu/media/content-assets/pdfs/consumer-information/SAU-Student-Handbook.pdf>

The information below is provided to assist you in resolving your concern or complaint.

Students are strongly encouraged to work with the involved individual(s) or office(s) of the University before filing a formal grievance. The information below is provided in case you are unsure of where to direct your concern or complaint.

If your concern or complaint involves sexual harassment or discrimination, report it to the St. Ambrose University’s Title IX Coordinator.
