

St AMBROSE
UNIVERSITY

YOUR ENGLISH CAREER STARTS HERE.

FLEXIBLE

Whether your passion is in teaching, law, writing, library science, literary studies, or more — the St. Ambrose English program lets you explore, learn, and grow in the field of your choice.

EXPERIENCED FACULTY MENTORS

Students are not just a number in a classroom; at St. Ambrose, you will be taught lifelong skills by qualified, experienced faculty — not teaching assistants. Here you will benefit from individualized attention and faculty mentorship.

DOUBLE MAJOR

The St. Ambrose English program is designed to be flexible, allowing students to merge their writing and critical thinking skills with additional majors in order to become well-rounded in any career path.

HANDS-ON LEARNING

Our students get involved beyond the classroom. Here, you have room to explore and engage. Serve on the student editorial board for Quercus, the campus literary and visual arts journal; join our chapter of the Sigma Tau Delta International English Honor Society; and perform your creative work at on- and off- campus readings.

GO BEYOND

Benefit from our many experiential learning opportunities such as internships, study abroad, and peace corps prep programs. Our English students have completed internships at print and media outlets; communications and PR firms; nonprofit organizations; law, medical, and local government offices; and elsewhere.

ENDORSEMENT & LICENSURE

With our eye on contemporary career choices, St. Ambrose offers a Bachelor of Arts in English with a Secondary English Education Endorsement. Students seeking licensure in 5-12 (Secondary) English fulfill all the requirements for a major in English as well as the licensing requirements in Secondary English prescribed by the State of Iowa and implemented by the Educator Preparation Program at St. Ambrose.
