The U.S. Department of Education has selected your application for "Verification." One of the items the central processor selected to verify on your application is Child Support Paid. The law says we have the right to ask for this information. If there are differences between your application and this statement, we will send corrections electronically to the U.S. Department of Education. If corrections are made, you will then receive an updated Student Aid Report (SAR) from the Central Processor (CPS). This may result in an adjustment to your estimated financial aid award. Financial Aid payments will not be made to your Student Account until all verification requirements have been met and the necessary corrections have been made.

What you should do:

1. Complete and sign this Child Support Paid Form. An incomplete form will be returned to you, which will delay your financial aid.
2. Send this completed form to the Financial Aid Office.
3. We may need information on other verifiable items. Please check with the Financial Aid Office and submit all other requested items.
